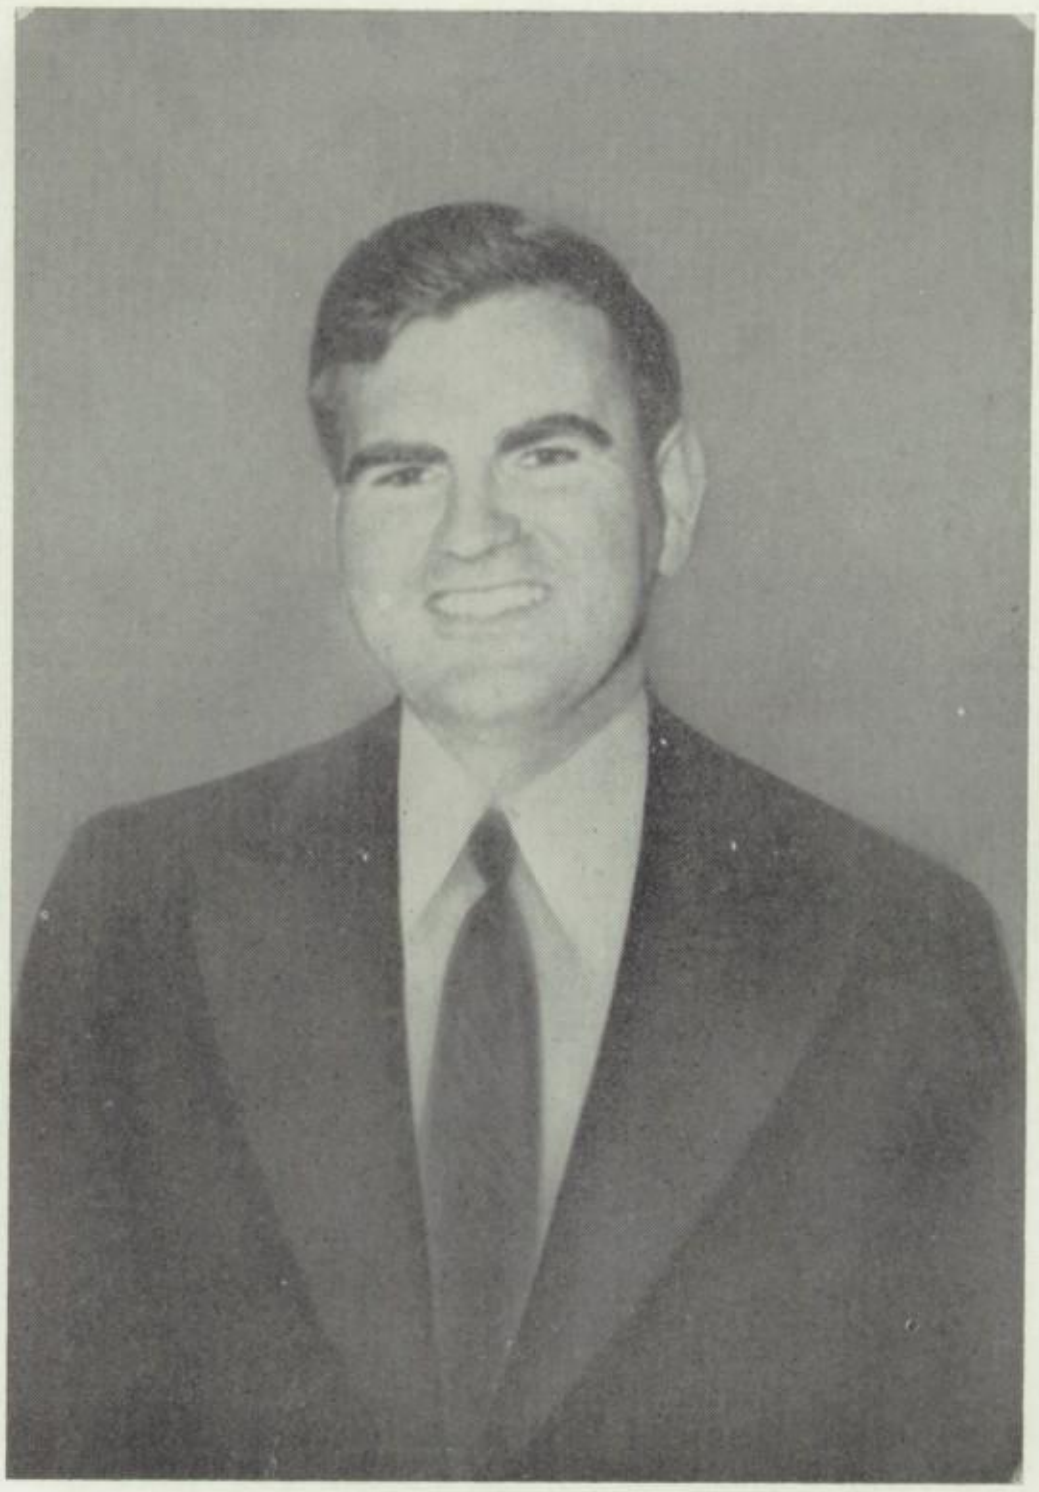
DEDICATION



WILLIAM J. MAHONEY

1946 - 1949

TO William J. Mahoney, a former member of the Gloucester High School English Department who died on October 1, 1949, this 1950 Flicker is humbly dedicated.

During Mr. Mahoney's three years at our school we admired his sincere and sympathetic nature, his geniality, his keen sense of humor, and his accurate judgment.

Mr. Mahoney's outstanding quality, however, was service to others. Through this dedication we hope to express our sincere gratitude for all that Mr. Mahoney did for us while he was at Gloucester High School.

Prologue . . . .

LEAVING behind us the care free years of our school lives, we are now on the threshold of a more challenging and demanding period.

From this point in the middle of the century we look back at the progress and the catastrophies of the first half, which are now part of history, and forward with hope that our generation will achieve noble goals and avoid pitfalls and disasters.

These pages will serve as sparks to ignite the recalling of our memories. For most of us these high school years have been a combination of work and play. Our achievements now loom larger than our defeats; our irrepressible gaiety and joyous laughter overshadow our sorrows and tragedies. From this book we hope all will in the future evoke the pleasant memories of our high school days.

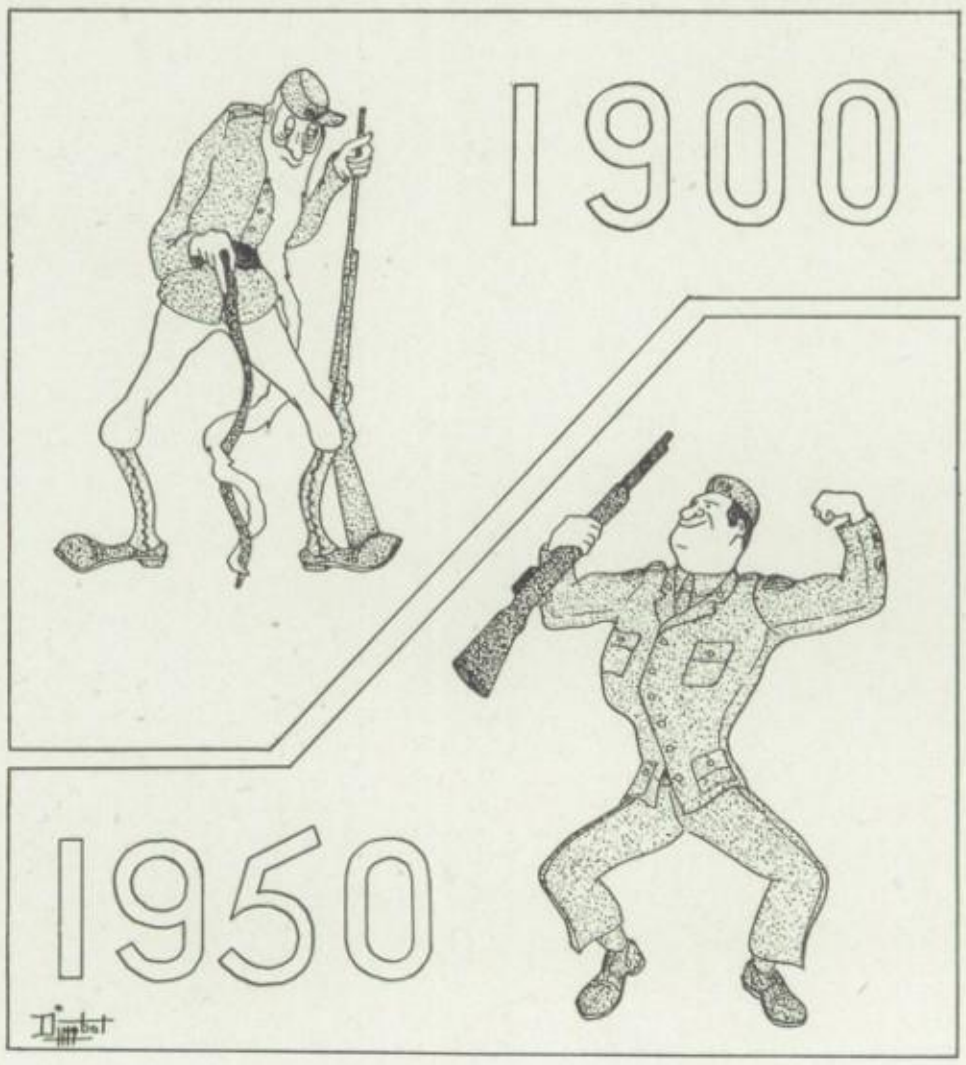
ROTC



Educationally and socially the R. O. T. C. holds a prominent place in Gloucester High School. For approximately thirty years the regiment has maintained its honor rating. Each of the dances has had its unique features.

This half century year makes the sixty-fifth anniversary of military training and the thirtieth year of the R. O. T. C. in the school. The staff this year includes Major Robert A. Guenthner P. S. M. and T., Captain Herbert L. Rawlings, Sergeant Joseph Barbosa, Sergeant John Atkins, Sergeant Thomas Murray, and Sergeant Ralph Eye.

The drill periods have been filled with various out-of-door ceremonies. These include street parades, platoon and company drill and preparation for formal inspection. The in-door program has included practice in the manual of arms, military training films, formal retreat ceremonies, and preparation for Field Day. The competition for the Bachelor Trophy which will be presented on Field Day, as taken place in the various drills and in the intramural sports. Sergeant Eye's Rifle Club has been busy practicing for the various matches, and Mr. Gentile's musicians have spent long hours preparing for the spring concert and the annual music festivals. The band is under the leadership of Captain Paul Frontiero, Drum Major, and Captain Roger McPherson, Company Commander.

The officers and the staff have planned and prepared carefully in order that the parties should be successful. In the spring of "49" the Sergeant's Party was a beautiful and colorful occasion. Under the guidance of "Baker" Silva a huge center piece of red, white, and blue streamers transformed the gym. At the November party the football and turkey motifs were combined in a parade around the walls. For the entertainment of the guests the individual drillers, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Donald Emero, displayed their military skill and efficiency. The grand march was intricate and beautiful. There are many who will remember the party when the officers "got stuck with the decorations." LePage's product held lovely winter scenes fast to the gym walls; the blue birds were loath to depart; the icicles would not melt. At this party in January the Officers under the command of Colonel Taylor presented a spectacular and fast moving platoon drill, and the Girls' Drill Team under the command of Lieutenant Doris Johnson gave their annual exhibition.

5. Extra special practice is held for the seniors.
6. Seniors walk around corridors as if just visiting school. Hope next year that's all they'll have to do.

Grad. Day—The day long looked forward to and long to be remembered by all; the turning point has come in our lives and the end of four happy years is graduation.

Sparked by fleet backs and a fiery line, the 1949 G. H. S. grid machine rolled to the Eastern Massachusetts Class B title with an impressive record of nine wins, one loss, and no ties. Annexing the first class B championship in G. H. S. history, this Gloucester eleven amassed a total of 306 points to their opponents 94 to become the highest scoring team in the state and in the history of G. H. S. fooball.

Lucido to Sawyer in the End Zone

GLOUCESTER 39 — REVERE 6

An untested Gloucester eleven proved its potentialities by overpowering a stubborn Revere team in the season's opener. Jackie Lucido and Sooky Sawyer each scored twice to pace the victory. Lucido's 40 yard reversed field run was rated the outstanding play of the day. The line play of Co-Capt. John "Mizzy" Misuraca and Charlie Currier was superb.

GLOUCESTER 27—LYNN CLASSICAL 14

Sparked by the determination to defeat arch rival Lynn Classical and by the will to block, tackle, and run, G. H. S. swept to its second consecutive win. Destined to become the trademarks of this team, the downfield blocking and classy running attack were the big features of the game. Co-Capt. Anthony "Hogan" Garrisi, Lucido, and Sawyer again proved themselves offensive giants.

GLOUCESTER 26 — NEWBURYPORT 0

With Jackie Lucido's 63 yard touchdown run sparking the offense, the Rossonians were boosted by a grand showing in every department to a decided victory over the Newburyport Clippers. Jerry "Runt" Nicastro and Onorato "Hawk" Galante added their names to the touchdown hall of fame, while Farrell Roberts paid his second visit of the season to "Mr. End Zone."

GLOUCESTER 41 — SWAMPSCOTT 13

Unleashing a furious assault on the Sculpins' ramparts, G. H. S. smashed through the Swampscott defense almost at will. All offensive honors go to elusive halfback Jack Lucido, who tallied three times with a record breaking 104 yard gallop as climax. Farrell Roberts, Charlie Currier, and John Misuraca paved the way for the Fishermen's offense with savage and effective blocking.

GLOUCESTER 7 — MARBLEHEAD 6

In the season's thriller the state's highest scoring team met and broke Marblehead's perfect record by a lone score and conversion. A first period touchdown aerial strike from Lucido to Garrisi, followed by a perfect Garrisi conversion spelled early doom for the Headers. "Mighty Mite" Nicastro was outstanding in squirming through keyholes in the ponderous Marblehead defense while Co-Captain Misuraca played his usual brilliant game at guard.

FOOTBALL

GLOUCESTER 7 — BEVERLY 12

Obviously weakened by its crushing victory over Marblehead, Gloucester succumbed to Beverly and its fleet back, Billy Ransom. Beverly broke into the scoring column in the first period and again in the third, aided by a long Gloucester penalty. In the last period Gloucester bounded to life as it found the right combination and scored on a Lucido to Garrisi pass. Misuraca was again a standout in the Gloucester forward wall.

GLOUCESTER 37 — PEABODY 12

In full strength for the first time since the Marblehead duel, the blistering G. H. S. offensive suppressed a grudging Tanner eleven. Stimulated by Lucido's passing and running, Sawyer's three perfect scores, and Charlie Courant's decisive blocks, the Fishermen resumed their torrid touchdown pace.

GLOUCESTER 32 — AMESBURY 6

Displaying an impressive fiery attack against a reportedly powerful Amesbury eleven, G. H. S., annexed another victory on the road to the Class B crown. Gloucester did most of its scoring in the first half, when it crossed the goal line twice in the first period and two more times in the second period, on a Lucido to Sawyer pass and a Currier interception. Next year's potential greats gained much experience in the second half as Coach Ross substituted freely.

GLOUCESTER 39 — MELROSE 12

Garrisi's 80 yard runback of the opening kickoff touched off a six touchdown splurge that buried the Melrose Raiders. Lucido, Misuraca, and Nicastro together with Robert Jedrey and "Hawk" Galante followed Garrisi's tracks to pay dirt. Before the close of the first half, Gloucester had sprayed the field with substitutions, including Joe Nicastro, 98 pound freshman mite.

GLOUCESTER 51 — WAKEFIELD 13

Gloucester High showed no mercy in smashing its way to the Class B crown on Thanksgiving Day morning. Jerry Nicastro's score on the first play was followed by a Lucido score three plays later. Gloucester was in high gear as Jedrey, Garrisi, Sawyer, and Misuraca also contributed to the touchdown parade. Perhaps unnoticed beneath the season's offensive barrage was the invincible center play of Charlie Courant, who snapped the ball back with amazing accuracy throughout the season in addition to executing timely and lightning fast blocks.

FAST on the blades, quick on the trigger, and clever with their passes, Gloucester High School's invincible hockey sextet slammed to the North Shore High School Hockey Championship. Completely outclassing all teams of the North Shore's Northern Division, Gloucester whipped Southern Division champs, Lynn Classical, to take the league championship with an unmarred record. Showing many of the mannerisms of professionals, the dynamite line of Robert Jedrey, Joe Witham, and Captain Farrell Roberts, the sterling defence of Jim Witham, Jack Aptt, and goalie Dick Camille, and the spirited second line sparked by Bill Marchant, clearly denoted a team of championship caliber.

Vol. I No. 33 FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1960 5 Cents

Bob Jedrey Day Held At Warriors' Pasture

Yesterday afternoon at Warriors' Pasture, before a capacity crowd of 50,000, the Gloucester Lodge of Reindeer, plus many fans from this city, paid tribute to Bob Jedrey. Bob, a native of Lanesville, has recently made good in the big league and is astounding all sports enthusiasts by his brilliant play. Said Robert Davis, part time sports writer for the Boston Herald, "He is an amazing, up-and-coming ball player." Jerry Nicastro, one time center fielder for the Warriors, also shared this opinion.

The Reindeers held their ceremony just before game time and presented Bob with many certificates for his new home in Lanesville. The bride to be, Miss Jeanne Haskins, said she is simply delighted. There was a promise of a new Cadillac for Bob sometime in the future, but Reindeer treasurer Paul Frontiero said he doubted if the money could be raised. When President Norman Brown heard this statement from Brother Frontiero, he questioned the treasurer's honesty; and the argument continued for several minutes. The case will be brought to court next week, before the judge of the juvenile department. It was felt that he could better handle the case. After this brief interlude the ceremony ended and the game got underway.

Since the game was quite one-sided, 11-6 in the Warriors' favor, observing the spectators was more interesting than watching the game. In one of the front boxes was the excited Dot Marks, and her well-known brothers, and in the box to her left was the famous New York model-mother, Mrs. Holly Steer Foster, and her daughter Mistletoe. The entire stadium was thrown in an uproar by the appearance of the Misses Betty Pistenma and Sally Ann Smith, just returning from their visit to West Point. They had not been heard from since their departure during Christmas vacation of their senior year.

An interruption occurred during the fourth inning when the public amplifier went dead. Warrior president, Hogan Garrisi, easily corrected this, however, by hiring Phil Legendre to continue the announcements for the rest of the game. An interesting spectacle was the strangely clad man sitting on the flagpole out in center field, who, when giving his statement to the press, said, "I shall remain here until the Warriors clinch the pennant." Field glasses revealed this man to be none other than Robert Carr.

Contacted for this game were the following Troubadours: Fred Slafsky, clad in a yellow necktie and a Kelly green palm beach suit, Hawkeye Galante, wearing platinum plated ear muffs; and Ronnie Taylor, displaying a pair of the famed Little Black Sambo Sneakers, with crimson soles and linings. They have adopted as their theme song, "Warriors Wantum Wampum."

Dedication of New Recreation Center

Mayor Roger D. McPherson today laid the cornerstone and conducted the dedication of the newly erected recreation center on the site of the former Central Grammar School. This project was financed through the generosity and support of two former citizens, Senator Charles Courant and Congresswoman Ruth Marshall.

The program of dedication consisted of —

Address:—Mayor McPherson
Solo—Phyllis Call
Remarks: Senator Courant
Congresswoman Marshall
Laying of the cornerstone by Mayor McPherson
Star Spangled Banner:—R.O.T.C. Band

The R.O.T.C. Band was under the capable direction of the music instructor, Paul A. Frontiero.

Tonight's Events

NORTH SHORE—"I Remember Papa," starring Jerry Curhan and Doris Johnson.

STRAND—"He Wore a Yellow Necktie," starring Fred "Hot shot" Slafsky and Dot "keep 'em laughing" Bicknell.

LECTURE—At the Community House by Mary Ann Stephanio—Deutschland Diary or Thirty Seconds over Berlin.

CITY HALL—Variety show introducing Leo "the lion" Dionne and his waltzing bear cubs. Also cartoon caprice by Dingbat.

FATHER'S CLUB—Meeting tonight at the home of Anthony Garrisi. He will discuss "How to raise and manage the home football squad."

Notice

Dr. Sumner Marshall, M.D., B.S., M.S., P.H.D., B.V.D., will open his office on next Thursday afternoon. He is well educated having degrees from Edinburgh, Munich, and Solomon Islands. He can read, write, do simple arithmetic, make fudge. Women patients are a specialty.

Gloucester Soprano Opens Met Season

by Cholly Kickinbucket

Last night the fantastic Emerald Horseshoe of the Metropolitan Opera was a glitter of famous celebrities, who came to hear Miss Anne Hart, noted Gloucester soprano, sing the title role in Salome. Miss Hart was not only in magnificent voice, but she proved her originality by performing the celebrated Dance of the Seven Veils with only five.

After the performance, Elinor Deering, successor to Elsa Maxwell in the New York social set, held a soiree in her sumptuous Park Avenue mansion for the featured soloist. Seen among the guests were a number of Gloucester notables. The world famous quartette, Three Bops and a Beep, Barb Hallett, Pat Cunningham, Susie Hill, and Peg Shute were relating their experiences on the Randolph "Godfrey" Perrin Talent Scout Program. Also among the crowd were Mrs. Woolworth S. Roebuck, the former Peggy Hickey, Kathy McCue, chairwoman of the Board of Directors of the Joseph Peters Company, dealers in toy autos exclusively, Priscilla Joseph noted Latin scholar, and Lillian B. Pike, authoress. Miss Pike was kept very busy autographying the 300th volume of her series "The Depreciation of English Literature." To close the festivities Miss Deering suggested, "Let us now rise and sing the G. H. S. school song.

Art Exhibition

Members of the Main Street Art Association are holding their yearly exhibition on Friday of next week at the Perkins Hotel. Twenty of last season's masterpieces will be re-shown in addition to many new works. Featured are the paintings of Jane Budrow, Stanley Marchant, Dot Swift, and Muriel McLeod.

Miss Budrow will be remembered for her charming portrait of the Charles Currier children, May and June, which won thirty-second prize at the world art gallery in Moscow last October. Her most recent attempt is a water color entitled "An egg salad sandwich." Critic Donald Landry has offered the following description of the portrait: "An egg salad sandwich resembles a purple cantelope with sideburns and a bad cauliflower ear."

Stanley Marchant, a newcomer to the group, is displaying a winter landscape entitled "Brrrrr" and a serious study of the new remote controlled Lucido lawnmower.

Ever since she attended Gloucester High School, Dot Swift has hoped to become a great artist. Her fame came rather suddenly last month, when she displayed "Stage Fort Park after Dark," a promising success which shows careful blending of tones and interesting composition.

Muriel McLeod, founder of the group and a well known fashion designer for the Priscilla Rioux Gown Company, is planning to exhibit her world famous caricature of Senator Charles Courant and his dog Pentagon.

PASSING GLANCES

Success story 1960. Naomi Epstein was given a large reception at the home of hair stylist Bev. Green on Monday last. The occasion? Miss Epstein received her driving license from Inspector Jack Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Bugs Bunny (nee Barb Hilton) are celebrating their tenth wedding anniversary.

Miss Nancy "eyelashes" Cavanaugh, popular model, will head the billing for the midnight fashion show to be held next Wednesday night in the Philip Ireland Memorial Building. Proceeds will be used to re-forest the Norman Brown picnic area, Lanesville.

Mrs. Richard Murray (nee Ann Connor) has taken over the management of F. W. Woolworth and Company in this city. She was recently awarded a certificate for her years of employment. Bev. Marchant has been appointed manager of the North Shore Theater. All of her former classmates are invited to attend a free showing of "Found Weekend" starring Joan Hewett.

U. S. Debator Sally Frontiero has returned home following a tour of Europe, where she participated in many debates before royalty.

Dorothea Enos, Phyllis Homans, and Joan Brennan, formerly of this city, are spending an enjoyable six months' vacation in Panama. They are the guests of the latter's uncle. All three are employed in Washington, D. C. as secretaries.

HUSBANDS!! ARE YOU NAGGED BY A CRABBY WIFE? ARE YOU THE POOR TARGET FOR A DELUGE OF ROLLING PINS? ARE YOU CONFRONTED BY BOBBY TRAPS IF YOU COME HOME LATE AFTER AN EVENING WITH THE BOYS?

IF YOU CAN ANSWER YES TO ANY ONE OF THESE QUESTIONS, YOU ARE IN NEED OF A GANNON PADDED SUIT.

Hen pecked husbands Onorato Galante, Lewis Robinson, and Tom Hodge have been testing the new Gannon Padded suit, and agree:

WE UNFORTUNATE MALES NEED THE GANNON PADDED SUIT. IT IS EXTREMELY WORTH-WHILE EXCEPT IN A FEW CASES.

THE GANNON PADDED SUIT MAY BE THE ANSWER TO YOUR PRAYER. VISIT ONE OF OUR SHOWROOMS TODAY!!!

On the Book Beat

Author R. Mason Ingersoll is working on a new book, Christmas and How!, which is to be a humor filled account of life with tots of the five-seven age group around the holiday season. Ingersoll will answer the age old questions, "Why does Santa Claus come down the chimney rather than simply walking in the door?" and "Why does the department store Santa have blue eyes and freckles, while the St. Nick on the corner has brown eyes and a bald head?" This should prove to be a delightful packageful, especially since the author's clever wife has sketched the well known Hill Puppets in quaint positions throughout the text.

For lovers of the thrilling mystery novels written by Robert Farrell (Farrell Roberts), here is a new edition, The Zombie's Loving Cup, which has been selected as this weeks best hair raiser by columnist Joan Low.

Gloucester Women's Club Notes

AT the next meeting of the Gloucester Women's Club, lecturer Marilyn Wagner will speak on the topic — "Your Chances with a Younger Boyfriend." All maiden members will benefit by this lecture, since Miss Wagner has some fascinating statistics on the subject as gained through her own personal experience, as well as those of Miss Mary Ann Stephanio. Incidentally there will also be a contradictory report prepared by Misses Judy Bocken and Carol Clark presenting "The Advantages in Going with an Older Man." The evening will conclude with debates by the final speakers, "Curly Hair vs. Straight" and "Brunette vs. Blond," with Miss Bocken favoring the curly and brunette, and Miss Clark strongly defending the straight and blonde.

T. V. HEADLIGHTS 1960

On station ICU, Marilyn Rich Vanderbuilt will present another of her sizzling lectures, "Cooking for the Heiress." This week Mrs. Vanderbuilt will prepare strawberry banana chiffon inside-out cake, and glazed humming bird's tongue under glass. Be sure to miss this presentation.

The dealers and distributors of Haskins' potato sticks are sponsoring Harry "Berle" Goldman in an exhausting hour of charm this evening at eight o'clock. Co-starring in this enterprise are Bruce Clark, tight rope walker; Holly Steer and her trained blood hounds, and famous hypnotist Donald Coull.

Candidate for school committee, Paul Frontiero, is beginning a two year campaign this evening by discussing the need for elevators in our public schools.

Police Notes

COMPLAINT — Connie Scott reports twelve banana peelings left on door step last evening. Seems organ grinder Buzzy Miller and his monkey Jojo camped over night on the front porch.

RESCUE—Norman Doucette with a pole in his hand was found perching perilously on the A. Piatt Andrew Bridge early this morning. When questioned, he said that he was just fishing for mermaids.

SQUAD CAR—Picked up Carol Clark stalking over the city dump "wit flashlight" Tuesday evening. She mislaid a picture of B. Ruth.

POLICEMAN—Allan "hand cuffs" McPhail and Bill "frisk-'em-quick" Grover escorted Bill "Lawrence" Twomey from the 3.15 train yesterday, when crowds of screaming teenagers threatened to carry him away. Bill will keep a short engagement at the Feener Follies before returning to New York. His new musical comedy, "Basking at Bass Rocks," will soon open on Broadway.

Personalized Portraits

and it's all done with Lights!

There's magic in lights . . . add a light here, place a spotlight there, and your portrait takes on the appearance of real form and individuality.

Your Vantine photographer knows how lighting effects can be best used . . . How easily they can reflect your personality.

Your Vantine photographer knows best how to secure the sharply etched photograph your engraver desires of the important senior year . . . The victories of the atheletic teams . . . The brilliance of social occasions . . . The Prom . . . The plays . . . The debates . . . The expression of everyday life on the campus.

That personalized portraits by Vantine are important is attested to by the fact that over 300 schools and colleges repeatedly entrust their photographic work to Vantine.
